Happy New Year!

Attend benediction this evening at 7:30. and start the New Year with an act of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

Epiphany.

This feast is tomorrow. It is also called the "Gentile's Christmas," because it commemorates the manifestation of our Lord to the Gentiles. Try to receive Holy Communion tomorrow morning.

Exposition.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration all day today.

Bernie Kirk.

A letter from Bernie's mother says:

"I am sure will not be surprised to learn that his was a beautiful and holy death. After the accident he regained consciousness, received the Sacraments, and died a death that anyone might envy."

Father Burke, chaplain at the University of Michigan stated that Bernie kept up the practice, begun at Notre Dame, of Receiving Holy Communion before every game.

A requiem Mass for the repose of his soul will be said as soon as the rubrics allow it--which means after the octave of the Epiphany.

Obituary.

Henry Lauerman, of Corby Hall, asks prayers for the repose of the soul of his father, who died December 30.

The Sick.

Three students ask prayers for relations who are very sick.

New Year's Resolutions.

Merge them all into one, to receive Holy Communion every morning. If you keep that one, you will not have to worry about the rest.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.
