

Religious Bulletin.

Nov. 7, 1922.

Have a Heart.

Please don't stral the bulletin unless it is intended for you personally. You may deprive some poor soul of spiritual refreshment.

The Novena.

Study the little graph under the Novena sign. Write your own essay on gratitude. It wasn't because they had no reason to be grateful. The percentage of failure in the exams was 14: the percentage of ingratitude was 67. In the case of the 10 lepers ingratitude ran 90 per cent.

Anent those Stomachs.

The stomach functions automatically: it's too bad the brain doesn't.

Big Business.

The pamphlet rack has a circulation of over 4,000 so far this year. There are only 14 more copies of "Courtship and Marriage". A new supply of prayer books has arrived.

Where do we get the Dope?

The Bulletin has more contributors than the lines of Harvey Woodruff.

Father Irving's Talks.

The next one will be given next Monday night at seven o'clock. Leave your name in the pamphlet rack or at 207 Walsh Hall if you want to be reminded on Monday.

Obituary.

Dan O'Neil, of Carrol Hall, lost his brother yesterday. Students of Carrol Hall are asked to offer Holy Communion Wednesday morning for the repose of his soul.

The Sick.

A graduate of last year has been told by his physician that he has only a short time to live, unless he can undergo a very dangerous operation. You know what prayer will do. Sorin Hall please note.

Rev John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.
