Homecoming Eighteen Years Ago.

"While still a Freshman do not be conceited enough to think that your college will be benefited by your telling everyone through act or apparel that you represent her. And when you become an alumnus remember that we do not go home to mother ~~to~~ and the old home to celebrate in excesses which savor of club or bar room, and especially when the "kids" and mother's friends are all there.

"The men/are most prominent in the world and who have the interest of their Alma Mater most at heart are not the ones who make themselves most conspicuous when they return to visit her. Don't let appearances deceive you."

-- From "Not in the Curriculum" , A Princeton book.

A Holy Tradition Broken.

The Catholic Church dedicates Saturday to the Blessed Virgin and Notre Dame asks her students to hear Mass in her honor that day. The following table shows the number of Communion on eight Saturdays this year and last:

439	721	758	678	607	527	634	601
309	623	628	634	551	978	624	447
-49	-98	-138	-44	-56	451	-10	-154

The sixth Saturday was homecoming last year, and the close of the Mission this year.
