

Religious Bulletin.
Dec. 6, 1922.

A Good Line.

A good line of off-campus students files from the car to the cafeteria each morning. While a straight line is the shortest distance, a broken line through the Walsh Hall chapel will prove the straightest line to your eternal salvation.

Did You Hear Mass Last Sunday?

You did not:

If you slept through the principal parts.
If you read a newspaper instead of paying attention.
If you were so distracted that you did not know what was going on.

Get the pamphlet, "Prayers and Ceremonies of the Mass," and learn how to hear Mass with profit to your soul.

What is a Proportionate Decrease?

Last year the number of Communions per student each week was 3.5; this year it is 3.2.

"Cast out the scoffer and contention shall go with him: and quarrels and reproaches shall cease." -- Proverbs, 22:10.

"Even a fool, if he will hold his peace, shall be counted as wise, and if he close his lips, a man of understanding." -- Proverbs, 17:28.

I'm good I Don't Have to Go to Communion."

So was David-- but he fell into grave sin, because he trusted in himself.

So was St. Peter-- but he denied our Lord, because he bragged.

The man who received one talent was good in a negative way, but he was sent to Hell by a just God for not being good in a positive way.

You will have to render an account to God for the graces you neglect.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.