

Religious Bulletin.
Jan. 24, 1923.

"How Often Should I Go to Confession?"

Daily communicants frequently ask this question. You are required to go to confession before Holy Communion only when you are sure you are in mortal sin (which God forbid). It is useful to go once a week. You may tell a sin from your past life, make your contrition center on that sin, and receive absolution.

This gives you all the graces of the Sacrament of Penance: increased sorrow and purpose of amendment, strength against temptation, the atonement of temporal punishment still due past sins, the cancellation of venial sins and sinful habits, etc.

Pamphlet Rack.

The following books, selling for twenty-five cents, are in the pamphlet rack:

"You and Yours."

chapters on young Men and Courtship, Amusements, Dangers to Young Men, etc.

"The Hand of God".

God's permission of Evil -- Divorce and Remarriage -- Intolerance -- Virtue without Religion -- Purgatory -- Indulgences -- The Clergyman as man and as priest, etc.

Off-Campus Students.

Father Gassensmith can supply you with the Religious Survey.

Bed Time Story.

II

Achitophel (for such was the name of our hero) was stunned. A primitive instinct of self-protection repressed a primitive instinct to tell the manager what he thought of him.

Pity! That was it. He pitied him. His heart sobbed as he contemplated this wasteful lack of appreciation. His heart sobbed as contemplated this wasteful lack of appreciation. His mind ran quickly over the names of the swearingest swains of Vermillion County. He knew that, provincial as they were, they could appreciate his fat vocabulary. He made a sudden resolve to cast no more pearls before swine. He would leave Broadway flat and return where glory waited him. He rushed madly into the street.

-----

Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C.,
Prefect of Religion.