

Religious Bulletin.
Feb. 10, 1923.

Forty Hours Devotion.

This devotion, in honour of the forty hours spent by our Lord in the tomb began in Milan in 1534 as an act of reparation for the excesses of public scandals of Carnival, the three days before Ash Wednesday. It begins here at the 8:30 Mass Sunday, and closes Tuesday evening, Father Stack will preach at the benediction Monday and Tuesday at 7:30.

The Adoration.

Students volunteer to adore during these three days. The halls are assigned to adoration as follows:

Sunday. P.M. -- Walsh.
Monday. A.M. --- Sorin and Freshman.
Monday P.M. --- Carrol.
Tuesday. A.M. -- Corby and Badin.
Tuesday. P.M. -- Brownson.

Please fill out the lists to insure an even distribution of adorers.

The Indulgences.

A plenary indulgence is granted to all who receive Holy Communion and visit the Blessed Sacrament during the Forty Hours. Try to receive every day. Consecrate these few days to God.

Holy Indifference.

Holy indifference is a form of humility which inclines the will to accept good and evil equally as graces sent by God for the purification of the soul.

Wholly Indifferents.

The wholly indifferent are those who care not what happens provided it does not interfere with their present comfort. God means nothing in their young lives. They simply can't be bothered -- and they won't until they die.

The Last Judgment.

Readers who followed the procession from the reviewing stand of the Bulletin this week will be interested in the following extended treatment of this interesting theme:

Bible: Joel. 3; 1-16; Isaias. 2: 4-19; Matthew, 24: 7-42;
Luke, 21: 25-36.

Following of Christ: Book 1, ch. 24; Book 3, ch. 14.
Dante's Inferno.

Miracles.

Tomorrow is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, whose shrine in France is famous for miraculous cures. Pray for the sick tomorrow. Send home a bottle of Lourdes water. You can get it at the Noviciate.

$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$

The collection tomorrow will be for the decoration of the altar during forty hours.