The Other Nine.

They came later in the morning. Yesterday's final total was 1000.

Via Crucis.

Try to make the Way of the Cross ~~or~~ at least once a week during Lent. If you don't have the public devotion in your Hall chapel, go to the basement on Friday evenings.

"The Catholic Journalist."

This sermon will be preached next Sunday by Msgr. Noll, Editor of Our Sunday Visitor.

Another Mission.

The sermons on Wednesday nights during Lent will be mission sermons. The first, "Salvation", will be preached by Fr. Donahue on the night of February 21.

Another Novena..

The most important Novena of the year, from the point of view of the Church, is the Novena for Vocations. This will start Sunday. Pray to God for good priests. Also pray for guidance in the choice of your own state of life, whatever it may be.

The 400.

The 400 students who have chosen abstinence from daily Communion as a Lenten penance, can give us some wonderful examples of other mortifications. Read the lives of the hermits of the desert and the story of the Penitentes of New Mexico.

The Six Dollars.

The $6.00 abstracted during the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament last Sunday may be returned to its owner by way of the pamphlet rack.

Which Shall it Be?

Lent begins on Valentine Day and ends on April Fool's Day.
