Continuation of the Blizzard.

The number of Communions fell off 85 from Wednesday to Thursday. Making allowance for accidents, in breaking the fast, there were still a lot of resolutions that went flooey.

Via Crucis.

Make the Way of the Cross tonight, either in your hall chapel or in the basement.

.The Stranger to God.

The student who fails to answer God's invitation to draw close to Him during life is preparing to spend eternity a stranger in God's house. Certainly no student is preparing to spend eternity anywhere else.

How Many Others.....

~~have you brought to frequent Communion? The survey will be made soon.~~
Be prepared to give a good account of yourself on this question.

The Novena for Vocations.

God may not want you for the priesthood, but He wants someone. Your prayers will get someone that grace. "The harvest indeed is great, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers into the vineyard."

The Community.

Without the Congregation of Holy Cross there would be no Notre Dame. Notre Dame in the past has generally had one-half of the Faculty community members. Now they form one-third. Hence the need for Endowment. Pray during the Novena for the welfare of the Community and when your children's children come to Notre Dame they will still find the Community waiting on them.

The Wholly Indifferents.

"The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh, saying:

"Better is a handful with rest, than both hands full with labor and vexation of mind." -- Ecclesiastes, 4:5-6.

Prayers.

A sick relative of a student.

A special intention.

John O'Donnell of Carrol has been called home by the serious illness of his father.
