Prayers.

Louis Kinerk's mother died Friday.
Three special intentions.
Three sick relatives of students.

The Fortune Teller.

"The publicity given religion at Notre Dame has been something of a shock to me. I have always been taught not to let the right hand know what the left hand does; that Religion is a personal matter which concerns only yourself and God." Willing-to-Learn.

Dear Bill: The same Divine Lord who condemned the hypocritical Pharisees for parading virtue while secretly indulging vice, gave us this rule of conduct:

"Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house.
" So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father who is in heaven." -- Matt. 5:15,16.

What the world needs is a little publicity for religion. We have allowed the devil's press agents to suppress his name too long. Human respect thrives on the "do-your-praying-in-a-corner" idea. Any psychologist will tell you that at least 90% of people are influenced by environment; 5% of the rest are above environment and 5% below environment. Publicity simply makes your environment known to you. It is part of charity to your neighbor to edify and encourage him by good example. Timidity is not a virtue.

The New Gym.

Notre Dame could run five varsity schedules each year if she had proper training facilities. You can have a new gymnasium if you pray for it. The Drive Committee is collecting money in Cleveland now. Make the Novena and push the gym out to the road.

Your Kid Brother.

Do you want him to live in town? He will have to if you don't pray for a few residence halls. Make the Novena.

Engineers.

Concentration is what you need. Expansion is what busts. Concentration on the Novena, and then concentrate on your new building. It will enable you to keep out of people's way.

Commerce Men.

You won't have to swim from Chemistry Hall to the Library and back again to the Main Building if you get a Hall for yourselves. You fell down on the job last year. Your Novena for a building was the poorest Novena of the year. If you are afraid to pray for a whole building, each of you pray for a thousand bricks. Six hundred thousand bricks will help. The engineers will put them together for you.
