

Religious Bulletin.
October 3, 1923.

The Perfect Fool.

A man would be a perfect fool to prefer Ed Wynn to his first Friday devotion. Go to confession at 4:15 or 6:15 if you are going to be in town Thursday evening.

The Pageant.

Ditto, actors.

Ordinary Arithmetic.

There will be only six priests hearing confessions Saturday morning. Most of their work will be done between 6:30 and 7:00. Twenty-five times six is one hundred and fifty. Don't delay your confession till Friday morning. Go this evening.

The adoration.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration all day on the First Friday of each month. There is nothing more inspiring than a half-hour there with our Lord -- unless it be an hour. Fill out the lists.

The Blessed Virgin's Other Month.

May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, October to her principal devotion, the Rosary. Say one or five decades every day. Attend the services in the basement chapel at 7:30 p.m.

Wedding Bells.

Don't make yours a cow-bell. You will find pamphlets on marriage at the pamphlet rack.

S.P.L.B.

Interested persons are organizing a Society for the Protection of Local Bootleggers. Alumni competition is growing strong.

The Big Kick.

Complaint is sometimes heard from a student that he does not get enough kick out of his Religion. The Big Kick is in the Mission. Make it well -- and to do so you have to pray beforehand. Give your soul one good treat. This may be your last chance.

Statistics.

The total number of Communions during September was 11,390, an average of 670 a day. Last year the average for September was 643.

Wanted.

Forteen able-bodied students to serve Mass in the basement chapel at six o'clock every morning. Seminarians should not be serving Masses for you, cheating you out of a chance for fine merit.