The Fountain of Youth.

Some of the Sophomores -- and one of the Seniors -- seem to have found the foundation of Youth. They are still using the language of the hard-boiled alley gang. It isn't so noticeable in Freshmen -- especially when they close the transom instead of reforming.

Hick or What?

Profanity and vulgar speech have a scale of perfection. To which type do you belong.

1. The alley rat.
2. The hick.
3. The brakeman.
4. The mule-skinner.
5. Theminer.
6. The sailor.
7. The longshoreman.

Today, Tonight, Tomorrow and Tomorrow Night.

If you are going to town tonight, take care of your First Friday confession at 4:15 or 6:15 in the basement chapel. The Mass tomorrow is at 6:25 in the church, not in the basement chapel. Save a half-hour or so for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Benediction at 7:30 tomorrow night.

Intentions for Tomorrow's Holy Communion.

The Success of the Missions, Campus and Off-Campus.

A deceased friend of a student.

A successful football season.

Two special intentions.

For the speedy recovery or happy death of John McMullen's father.

How to Choose a Wife.

Read "You and Yours". There is a new supply of this classic at the pamphlet rack.

Corrections.

The morning services for the Off-Campus Mission will be at 6:30 and not 7:00 o'clock, as announced in the otherwise commendable Daily.
