Peace.

The Novena began this morning. Pray for universal peace: peace in Europe, peace in this country, peace at Notre Dame. If you are not on speaking terms with your father, your big sister, your prefects, your professors, your roommate, pray for peace.

Peace in Your Conscience.

The pledge keeps many a conscience peaceful, especially during the football season. Use this formula: "I promise, in memory of the Sacred Thirst of Our Blessed Lord on the Cross, to abstain from all intoxicating liquors for the space of three months."

He's Not Crazy: Examine the Judge.

The following is clipped from the Batavia Bugle:

BATAVIA BOY, 15, AGAIN
FLEES HOME FOR COLLEGE

Batavia, Oct. 13. Bent on attending college although he has not yet been graduated from high school, Dominic Zinni, 15, of No. 55 Hutchins Street, is home after making a third futile attempt to reach Notre Dame. The boy attempted suicide in police headquarters here.

Unmindful of the orders to be present Saturday in Children's court when the charge was preferred by his mother that he is a habitual runaway is to be heard, Dominic and Louis Fanara of No. 196 Liberty Street, climbed aboard a locomotive tender bound, as they thought, for the West.

After a journey of several miles they leaped off and boarded another engine. This instead of carrying them West, landed them back again in the Batavia yards of the New York Central. Both were arrested for appearance Saturday.

Prayers.

Four special intentions, four sick relatives of students. One student's father was injured in an auto accident Sunday.
