

Religious Bulletin.
November 15, 1923.

Homecoming in Georgia.
(From the New York Times)

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8. -- Drinking at football games is going to be stopped, according to Federal Prohibition Director Dismuke, who has announced that he will go to Athens on the day of the Georgia-Virginia game to direct the prohibition enforcement law there.

Hip pocket flasks are getting to be a regular part of football equipment for spectators, according to Mr. Dismuke, who added that the drinking seems to be less among the students than among the alumni and others.

"The Little Flower"

The Blessed Theresa of Lisieux, called "The Little Flower of Jesus", who was declared Blessed on September 30 of this year, has been chosen patroness of the Butler Game. "I will spend my Heaven doing good on earth" was her motto. Devotion to the Holy Will of God was her chief virtue. Her autobiography, written when she was but twenty-three has already been translated into every European language. Numerous miracles have been wrought through her intervention since the opening of her process of canonization.

The Team.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday your Holy Communions belong to the team. And if you don't stop gambling, more games will be lost. God ordains all things for our greater spiritual good.

Favors.

1. A student reports the death-bed conversion of a man whose name he had handed in for the Pentecost Novena last year;
2. Another reports a cure for blindness after a Novena to the Sacred Heart;
3. A third wants a Mass said for the Poor Souls in Thanksgiving for the recovery of lost property;
4. Five others report favors received through Novenas.

Don't forget to thank God for what He does for you.

Almost Human.

Lots of times we see people who talk and giggle and dance and eat with plates and knives and forks, but in whom something is A.W.O.I. They have one of two or all of the following traits in place of human characteristics:

1. The pliant will of a mule;
2. The sturdy backbone of a jelly-fish;
3. The retiring disposition of a goat;
4. The sound judgment of a goose;
5. The bashfulness of a peacock;
6. The energy of a hop-toad;
7. The tender cuticle of a rhinoceros.