RELIGIOUS BULLETIN

Sept. 13, 1924

---

THE SUNDAY MASSES Masses on Sunday are at 6:30 and 8:15. The solemn opening Mass of the school year will be deferred until Sunday, September 21.

UPPERCLASSMEN- ATTENTION 8:15, Not 8:30, is the hour for the second Mass this year.

CONFESSIONS TONIGHT

While confessions are heard during both Masses on Sundays, students are urged to go to Confession in the basement chapel tonight. The confessionals will be crowded Sunday morning.

HOLY NAME SUNDAY

Members of the Holy Name Society will gain a plenary indulgence with Holy Communion tomorrow.

HALL CHAPEL CONFESSIONS

Every evening after night prayer confessions are heard in the hall chapels. The following confessors have been appointed for the work:

Sorin - Fr. Kelly
Corby - Fr. McDonald
Walsh - Fr. Albertson
Badin - Fr. Lahey
Main Bldg - Fr. Steiner
Soph. - Fr. Healey
Fresh. - Fr. O'Hara

MODERN PROBLEMS

Notre Dame tries to offer you a wholesome spiritual development, in conformity with the needs for the modern age. A priest was asked recently by a young lady whether she could receive Holy Communion on that morning, as she feared she had broken her fast - she had smoked a cigarette. This is an example of a modern problem.

THE MARK OF DISTINCTION

Everyone has an inborn longing to be distinguished at something. One Freshman has already distinguished himself by good form in putting the shot - on the floor of the Palais Royale. Be good at something - but pick something that your grandson will be glad to brag about when he comes to Notre Dame.
