
He Put His Trust in a Trust Company.

Comes now Henry Ford, according to the Heraminer, to say that charity is all bosh. "The word should be ripped out of the dictionaries....It develops sloths."

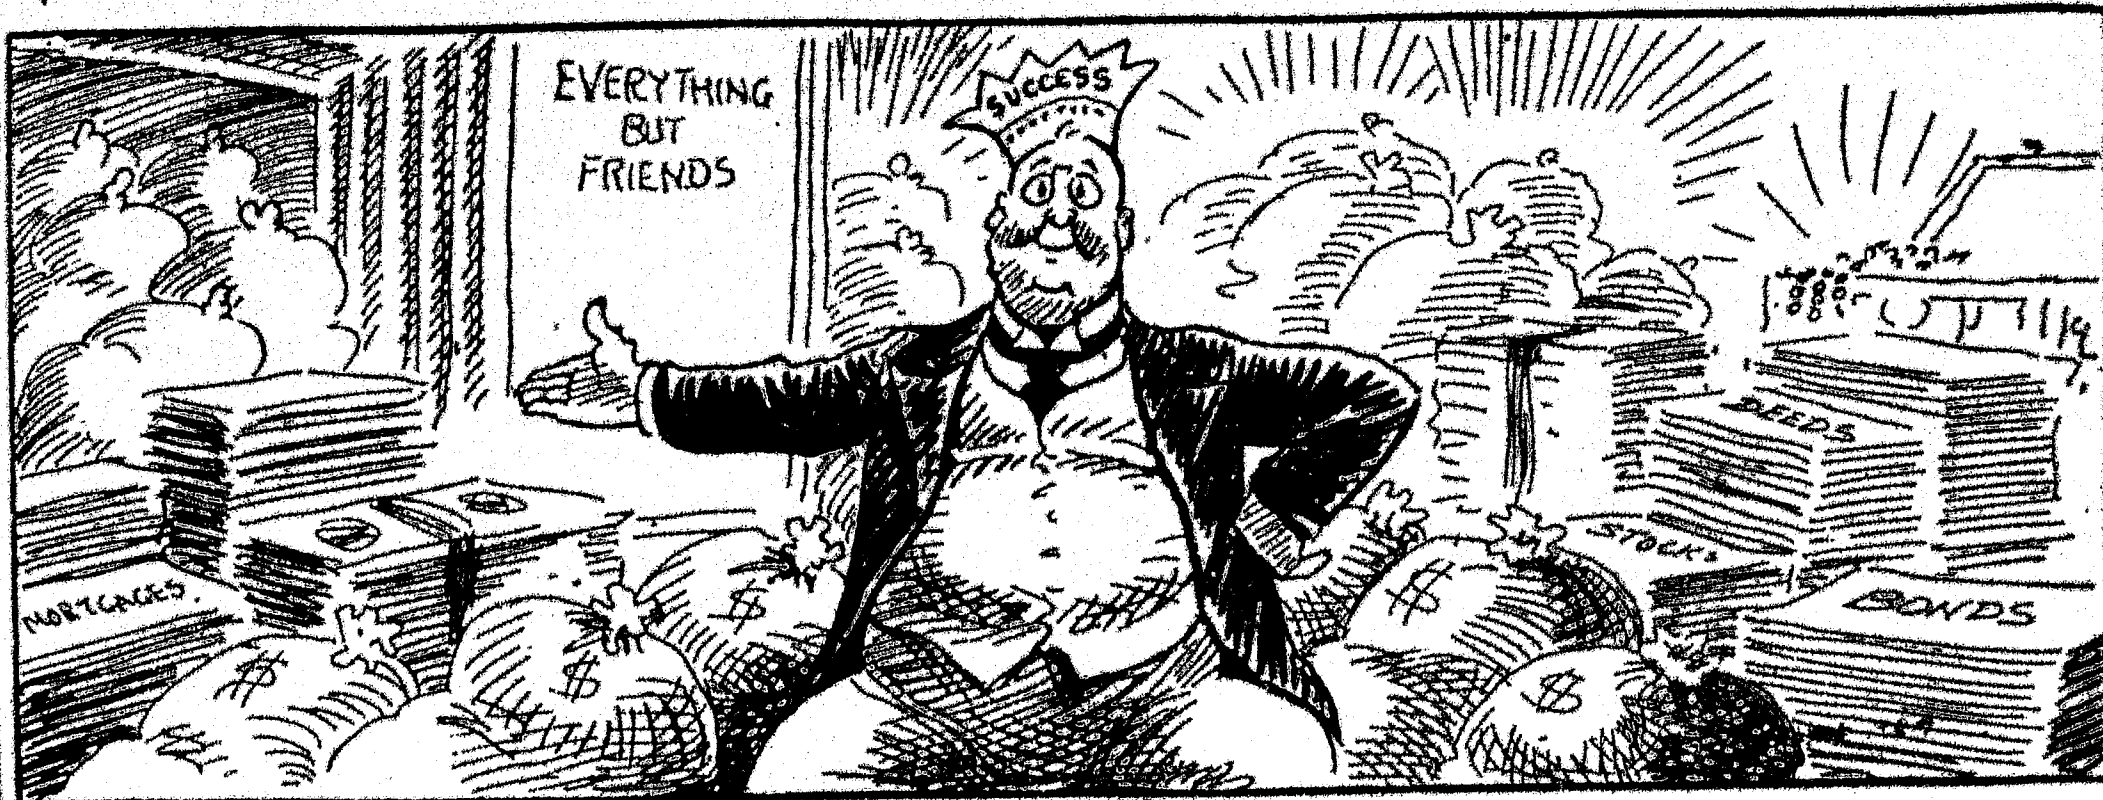

Christ said: "The poor we have always with us."

For the third time this year Jawn McCutcheon has walked into the Bulletin. This time in the midst of our campaign for Christian charity, he shows us the temple, the home, and the grave of one who put his trust in a Trust Company, and not in widows and orphans. We must thank Jawn for using his God-given gift of good sense.
