Off-campus Calendar.

Attendance of off-campus students at Holy Communion during Lent has been as follows:

			240	220	215	185
205	117	155	173	168	192	164
391	203	196	193	208	277	200
253	212	193	229	216	206	199
254	220	242	260c	214	208	214
264	247	212	196	224

Rumor has it that many of those who have made a satisfactory Lent have had much to be thankful for during the past few days.

Thanks! Thanks!! Thanks!!!

A student who received a considerable favor during the past week has donated fifty dollars to Father Finner's Fund for the conversion of the pariahs of the city of Dace. This is a very worthy act of thanksgiving; and the charity is an exceptionally worthy one.

Another student who had a prayer answered recently has donated ten dollars to be used for some charity. It will likely go to Father Finner, whose fund has been sadly neglected (it was started January 1, and it had reached only $20 by the beginning of this week.)

Finally, Father Brooks acknowledges the receipt of his $824 in the following letter:

"Dear Father: Your letter and check fell like a bomb in the midst of my tranquil life. True, I had read the Religious Bulletins and the proposal to raise $800 for me, but I never dreamed that so much would be raised, at least in so short a time. The student part of the contract is fulfilled; now it is up to us to do our part. I am trying hard to pep up our Christians to a higher level of fervor.

"I hope that it will be not many days until Van, with the help of the Little Flower, will be his old self again. I am sure that the students are continuing their prayers for him, and our joint intercession should be powerful.

"Please make known to the students how grateful we are for their good-will offering. I suppose that the only thank-offering they would be willing to accept would be prayers for Van's recovery."

Prayers.

We must not forget our own. Several students have left school through sickness this year, and they have a primary claim on our charity. Charles Baum has had his operation and much of his pain has been relieved, although his hearing is still impaired. Alex Arena has a long siege ahead of him. Tex Dolan wants prayers for his sight. Five students ask prayers for deceased relatives or friends, and four for sick persons. Today is the anniversary of the death of Jorge Palomino's mother. Howard Phalin's aunt is very sick. Elias Thomas was called home yesterday by the serious illness of his father.

Masses Tomorrow.

6:30 and 8:00. Go to confession tonight. Facilities will be limited at the first Mass.

Holy Week Book.

A few of these may still be had at the Sorin Hall pamphlet rack. If you come too late for one, take your New Testament to Mass with you and read the Passion according to St. Matthew.
