
Prayers.

Two deceased persons and three sick are recommended to your prayers.

Mothers' Day Novena.

Cancel all dates for next Friday evening. The May devotions begin that evening, and you will want to go to confession so that your Novena for your mother can start the next morning.

The Cardinal's Invitation.

Cardinal Mundelein has issued a call for all Catholics of the United States to receive Holy Communion next Sunday, May 2, for the success of the Eucharistic Congress. Your principal intention next Sunday will be for your mother, of course, but you can react to the Cardinal's invitation by making his intention your secondary one.

Questions from the Questionnaire.

121. How can I become more devout in receiving the Sacraments?

Ans. Look over the suggestions in the pamphlet Perseverance; see what item you are neglecting. If you want further help ask for it.

122. Why doesn't the Notre Dame man study more?

Ans. We have to be tricked into doing anything that is good for us.

123. Why aren't we given a chance to meet good girls?

Ans. Do you want the Bulletin to start an affinity bureau?

124. Why aren't there more social functions?

Ans. The little Indians used to ask Father Sorin that same question.

125. Is it right to smoke before going to Communion?

Ans. No.

126. Is Notre Dame an up-to-date university?

Ans. Worse than that.

127. What should the ethics of a professional man be?

Ans. They are regulated by the Ten Commandments and the Eight Beatitudes. If you have any specific doubts, submit them. Professional men have souls to save.

128. Why are the ideals of young men wavering?

Ans. Because they believe the newspapers, the magazines, the movie directors, and the pagans about them, rather than their parents and the Catholic Church.

129. In what way does prayer help ability?

Ans. The same God who gave you your mind and will can strengthen both; He will do it if you ask Him, provided it is for your eternal good. Lots of people, you know, can't stand prosperity, particularly intellectual prosperity.

130. Are we becoming cultured at Notre Dame?

Ans. That's too much to ask for.
