

Religious Bulletin

January 29, 1927

-----
For Edward Anton.

Edward Anton, of Sandusky, Ohio, a freshman off-campus student, lost a hard fight against pneumonia and tuberculosis yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital. He was a good boy, and was well prepared to die. He was anointed a week ago this morning, when he passed through the crisis of pneumonia, and he had the constant attendance of priests at his bedside during the whole period of danger. May his soul rest in peace!

Your prayers and Holy Communion will be of great benefit in relieving his soul of any suffering in Purgatory, and it will be a great consolation to his family to know that he is remembered here. While a remembrance in your prayers is assured, for the sake of his family you are requested to fill out below the offerings you will make for him:

Masses to be said

Masses to be heard

Holy Communion to be offered

Rosaries

Visits to the Blessed Sacrament

Visits to the Grotto

First Friday adorations (next Friday)

Way of the Cross

Other Prayers

Prayers for Others.

Jack Flanagan, of Walsh Hall, took on a dangerous turn in his illness Thursday evening, but was improved yesterday. Paul Johnson, of Corby Hall, has been called home by the serious illness of his father. Two other persons who are sick are recommended to your prayers.

The First Semester Was Safe.

We passed the first semester without a death, but the first morning of the second semester brought tragedy. God's reminders come when they are needed.