

Religious Bulletin

May 4, 1927.

May Devotions Tonight.

Fr. Gallagan will preach at the May Devotions at 7:30 tonight. Offer this service as a Mother's Day flower for your spiritual bouquet.

What Is Your Faith Worth?

Would you be willing to give your life for your faith? Several hundred fellows have said "Yes" to this question. Would you be willing to give a dollar to spread the faith? 238 have done so; some others have given loose change.

If you didn't have your dollar last Sunday, get it in as soon as possible.

Look Out, Brownson!

Recent returns of questionnaires have imperilled Brownson Hall's lead:

Brownson.....	105	Badin.....	46
Off-campus.....	104	Corby.....	31
Morrissey.....	83	Walsh.....	28
Freshman.....	81	Sorin.....	27
Carroll.....	69	Lyons.....	24
Howard.....	57	Unclassified.....	4
Sophomore.....	51	Exiles.....	2

The total is now 712. Last year's total was 758. Freshman Hall gave Brownson a good race last year, but the boys over there are more grown up this year, so we can't expect so much of them. Sorin is doing as well as could be expected: the more you do for a fellow the less he appreciates it.

The Shock to Your Mother.

Your mother might drop dead if she received word that you were offering nine consecutive Holy Communion for her. You can ease the shock by sending her a note each day in this tenor: "Dear Mother: In token of appreciation of your service to humanity in bringing me into the world I have done you a great favor this morning. Some day I'll tell you what I have done for you." Keep the rest of it as a surprise.

Father Finner's Shock.

The mail from India is sometimes tantalizingly slow. When the announcement of Fr. Finner's total was made on the Bulletin, the fear was expressed that perhaps the shock would be too much for the poor man. A fervent letter of thanks has just come from him, and in it he explains how he bore up under the strain. The check arrived two months after the cable announcing it, and during those two months he survived under the impression that there must have been one cipher too many in the cabled figures.

Prayers.

Two deceased persons, three special intentions, and one victim of an accident are recommended to your prayers. You are also asked to remember Mr. Solon Richardson, of Toledo, of the Board of Lay Trustees of the University, who died a few days ago. C. D. McColl, of Morrissey Hall, has received word that his father is not expected to live more than ten days. An alumnus who asked prayers for his wife and baby requests prayers of thanksgiving for a great favor received. Two other acts of thanksgiving are reported.