Collection for Flood Victims.

Cancel yesterday's Bulletin on the Sunday collection. The Red Cross has made its request more specific. Its request is for the flood victims of the South, so it must be taken care of immediately, and we can let the pamphlet rack shift for itself. The collection at the Masses at Notre Dame tomorrow will be for the flood victims; off-campus students may leave their offerings with Fr. Farley. Envelopes for last week's collection may also be handed in at the Sunday Masses.

Papal Relief Fund.

Offerings received since yesterday's report amounted to $26.56, bringing the total to $374.59. The practice of leaving money on the table still continues, so the list of contributors since the last report is given: P. Burkhardt, T. J. Donovan, J. Cownie, A. Loesch, C. A. Schuessler, I. LeBlanc, Doug Daly, G. Scheuer, J. Langton, Dan Bradley, T. Osbourne, F. P. Kane, W. A. McDonald, H. Bowlus, W. Kearney, E. Cunningham, Off-campusite, R. A. McVety, J. Brinkman, W. McCullough, A. J. Sullivan, (One student has reported thus far that his offering was not acknowledge; this means that it was not received. Please do not leave money lying on the table; there are dishonest people in this world, and they are not all in jail.)

Since it has become necessary to name the contributors since Sunday it seems only fair to add the names of those who contributed at the Sunday Masses: A. F. Allen, E. Arthur, D. Barry, W. Bernard, P.
