

Religious Bulletin

March 2, 1928.

Sign Up.

Off-campus students using the Sorin chapel for the reception of the Sacraments in the morning are asked to sign the register in the rear of the chapel. This enables the Prefect of Religion to get acquainted with those for whose souls he is in a measure responsible. Quite a few students who are visiting this chapel for the first time since Lent began are failing to sign. No one should feel ashamed of knowing his pastor; and keeping out of your pastor's way is certainly nothing to brag about.

St. Joseph's Month.

Is St. Joseph the patron saint of the largest number of Notre Dame students? It would appear so from the Survey (although it may be that many students did not name the Blessed Virgin because they did not know that she is a Saint and the Queen of Saints.) If it is so there should certainly be an overflow of devotion to him in this, his month. There are many pamphlets at the rack on this great Saint; the Novena to him (for a happy marriage) begins a week from Saturday.

Three outstanding virtues of St. Joseph should be practiced this month:

1. Humility, the mother of all virtues. One of the world's greatest men, he lived in obscurity.
2. Chastity, the magnificent virtue. God chose him of all men to be the chaste guardian of two virgins, Our Lord and His Blessed Mother.
3. Obedience, the strong virtue. Every time we hear of him in the Scriptures his prompt and unquestioning obedience stands out and brings results.

February:

The Communion calendar for February is very interesting:

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			871	1001	1464	1099
1319	1102	1144	1152	1144	1097	1000
1264	1065	1149	1127	1165	1183	1139
1286	1142	1285	1873	1681	1719	1703
1689	1672	1726	1750

Note the following days: Registration Day, the day after the Prom, Ash Wednesday. Has the traditional devotion to the Blessed Virgin disappeared? The Saturdays look bad.

Something Special for Al Taylor.

Al Taylor's mother passed away Wednesday evening, shortly after he reached home. We owe Al something special in the way of prayers. Every spiritual bouquet this year he has posted and gathered -- as a labor of love, for he receives no remuneration for posting the Bulletin each day. He, a senior, has done what many a freshman would balk at doing as beneath his dignity. We owe Al, and his mother and father, a special service for this. Fill out this spiritual bouquet for him:
