
First Friday Adoration.

Your First Friday Adoration tomorrow should be offered for your mother.

Confession Early.

The morning of the First Friday in May is always crowded with confessions. Be wise. Go today in the Sorin chapel or tonight, and you will be sure of a chance to be heard.

There Must Have Been a Dance.

Yesterday had a beautiful, balmy morning, but there must have been a dance the night before, as the number of Communions dropped very noticeably. It was a bit hard on the Novena for Mothers' Day -- and the problem gives food for a study in relative value.

You Can Still Make a Novena.

Mothers' Day is a week from Sunday. You can still start a Novena and finish it the day before her day. Say the Litany of the Blessed Virgin every day with your offering of Holy Communion. -- The Spiritual Bouquet cards were promised by the printer for this morning. They will be on sale at the Book Store, the News Stand, and the Candy Store. There will be none at the Rack.

Who -- Lindsey?

"Judge Lindsey, formerly of the Juvenile Court of Denver, is now engaged in the East in a rather lucrative campaign for the promotion of his theories of companionate marriage, birth control, and divorce by mutual consent. The Judge, we understand, receives $2,000 an evening for debating with handpicked opponents. -- Lindsey is a past master of publicity methods. He has mastered the art of keeping himself before the public and he has done so successfully over a period of twenty-five years.

"For a quarter of a century, Judge Lindsey has been regarded as one of the most prominent advocates of modern methods in dealing with juvenile delinquency. Those who have had first-hand contact with his court know very well that it represented ninety per cent talk and about ten per cent reality. As far as we can learn from first-hand contact, Judge Lindsey never had any organization or any standards in his court. He was guided by his own whims and fancies rather than by systematic procedure. For years his work has not been taken seriously by any social worker in Denver. The attack which the Ku Klux Klan made against Lindsey in his last election helped more than it injured him. Because of the attitude of the Klan many persons who did not believe in Lindsey's methods and who felt that the time had come for a clean-up in the Juvenile Court in Denver, were really compelled to vote for him as the lesser of two evils. It is rather interesting that a man of this type should be able to advertise himself and take money from the American people. He should be able to advertise himself as an expert in child care.

"According to his own confession Judge Lindsey should have been a Catholic. He informed the writer on one occasion that his lapse from the Church was due to a conflict with a priest in regard to Christian burial for his father who had committed suicide. He certainly has wandered far from the teachings of his childhood." -- Cath. Char. Rev.

Prayers.

John Patrick Rogers, alumnus, asks prayers for his father, who died Sunday evening; Kennedy Jones for his father, who underwent an operation Tuesday; John Hooley for two relatives who are quite ill; Bernard Loshgough for his mother, who is to undergo an operation next week. Three special intentions are recommended.
