Neo-Chemistry.

There was a man in our town
Who thought that he was wiser
Than all the doleful chemists
Of the Prohibition Kaiser.

He ridiculed their warnings
And gave as his decision
That he could drink wood alcohol
And still retain his vision.

He did, but didn't, sad to say,
This poor, deluded being
Has gone away from us -- beyond
The need of mortal seeing.

And yet -- I fancy still I hear
His supercilious laughter.
He now knows more than Conan Doyle
About the great hereafter.
