

Religious Bulletin
November 9, 1928

All Out!

Six-fifteen in the church tomorrow! You have been sufficiently informed by the S.A.C. If you don't want to be called, leave your name with the rector of the hall.

The Important Detail of Confession.

If your conscience wont allow you to receive Holy Communion tomorrow without first going to confession,

Go to confession today
Go to confession today
Go to confession today
Go to confession today
Go to confession today

It is a comparatively simple matter for a dozen priests to hear 1000 confessions today and this evening; it would be impossible for 1000 to have their confessions heard during the Mass in the church tomorrow morning. Your chances today are as follows:

5:30 - 12:00 -- Sorin chapel
6:15 - 7:00 -- Basement chapel
12:30 - 5:00 -- Sorin Hchapel
5:00 - 5:30 -- Church
5:30 - 5:50 -- Sorin chapel
6:15 - 7:00 -- Basement chapel
7:00 - 7:20 -- Sorin chapel
7:30 - 8:00 -- All hall chapels
8:00 - 11:00 -- Sorin chapel

If any student wishes to go to confession at any other time, let him leave word at the office of the Prefect of Religion, 141 Sorin, and an appointment will be arranged with any local confessor he wishes.

The intention is, of course, to give you all the opportunity you need for confession. And it might be added that this is the ordinary daily schedule.

Prayers.

Three special intentions, a deceased person, and one who is ill.

There's Another Game Coming.

Don't be too much a creature of your emotions. Spirit has been running high this week, but it has taken a proper course, in that the worship of God's is at its peak. See that your conduct over the week-end is in entire conformity with your act of worship tomorrow morning. Don't let your emotions lead you away from God and into mortal sin. You understand, of course, that it is colossal indignity to God to be His friend in the morning and His enemy at night. And if you plan sin at night, you can't receive Holy Communion in the morning.

The best way to wreck the chances for victory in tomorrow's game is to plan mortal sin for tomorrow night. The best way to spoil the record of Cartier Field on the following Saturday is to commit sin tomorrow night.

Beg Pardon.

We meant to tell you, but it slipped our mind: GO TO CONFESSION TODAY.