

The Engineers' General Communion.

The Engineering Club will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body at a special Mass at seven o'clock tomorrow in the church. They are requested to offer their Holy Communion this time for the repose of the soul of Father Molony's father, who died last week, following an automobile accident, and for Van Wallace.

Feast of the Blessed Virgin.

Tomorrow is the feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin in the Temple. It is an ancient tradition of the Church that the parents of the Blessed Virgin, following a custom of some of the pious Jews (and acting under Divine inspiration) placed their daughter in the Temple at the age of three, there to be instructed and trained in the service of God. The feast may be called the Feast of the Schooling of the Blessed Virgin; your petition to her tomorrow may be one for help in studies and grace to recognize, as she recognized, that God comes first.

The Spiritual Bouquet.

The spiritual bouquet for Jack Gleason was returned by seven halls and the Candy Store. The halls were: Sorin, Sophomore, Freshman, Carroll, Badin, Lyons, and Walsh. They showed the following offerings for the repose of his soul:

Holy Communions.....	1286
Masses said.....	42
Masses heard.....	679
Rosaries.....	466
Way of the Cross.....	25
Visits to the Blessed Sacrament.....	323
Visits to the Grotto.....	473
Aspirations.....	1180
Other prayers.....	633

The members of the Gleason family have been deeply touched by this evidence of your charity towards their son, and wish to assure you of their heartfelt gratitude. You are urged to continue your prayers for one of their number, a sister of Jack, who has been an invalid for years; the shock of his sudden death has been hard on her,

Lyons Hall gave a good example in this spiritual bouquet; it converted to Mass intentions for Jack the money that had been raised for decorating the Hall. The contribution of Sophomore Hall was notable; it included 776 Holy Communions and 506 Masses heard.

Statistics.

In response to many inquiries, statistics showing the reception of Holy Communions before the last two games are herewith given:

Thought For The Day.

"If only thy heart were right, then every created thing would be to thee a mirror of life and a book of holy teaching." -- The Following of Christ, book ii, chap. 4.

PRAYERS: Two special intentions; three thanksgivings; an aunt of Vincent Teeters, dying. So Durlacher's mother died yesterday.
