

Religious Bulletin

May 21, 1929

Adoration During Exams.

As a precaution against neglect of the Blessed Sacrament during Perpetual Adoration, it is proper to have three volunteers for each half-hour of exposition. Signatures already obtained provide for the following complement of adorers during the examination days:

| | 7:30 | 8:00 | 8:30 | 9:00 | 9:30 | 10:00 | 10:30 | 11:00 | 11:30 | 12:00 |
|-----------|-------|------|------|------|------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|
| Monday | 3 | 1 | 3 | | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 2 |
| Tuesday | 3 | | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | | | 2 |
| Wednesday | 4 | 2 | 4 | 3 | 3 | 2 | 1 | 2 | 2 | 2 |
| | 12:30 | 1:00 | 1:30 | 2:00 | 2:30 | 3:00 | 3:30 | 4:00 | 4:30 | 5:00 |
| Monday | 4 | 3 | | 2 | 1 | | 2 | 2 | 1 | 5 |
| Tuesday | 2 | 1 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 2 | | 1 | 2 | 6 |
| Wednesday | 5 | 3 | 3 | 2 | 2 | 2 | 2 | 1 | 4 | 5 |

Cards for the vacancies are at the pamphlet rack. Those who have signed for adoration during these three days should check over their hours now to see that they have no conflict. It will be difficult to arrange substitutions for very many at the last minute.

Ember Days.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days, but students and professors are excused from the fast and abstinence by virtue of the dispensation granted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the diocese of Fort Wayne. We are not excused from penance, however, and we should try to do something extra this week.

Vocations.

The ordinations that take place this week direct our attention to the necessity of praying for priests and more priests; for priests, that they may fulfill their functions worthily and for the greater glory of God and the good of souls; for more priests, that the needs of God's Kingdom on earth may be amply met.

Intentions And Adoration.

We hope that in your adorations you are not forgetting the intentions recommended by your fellow-students. One thing is certain: we have had some very bad cases in the Hospital this month, and they are all coming around well. Many students have private worries -- illness at home, financial difficulties, slumps in studies, discouraging battles with temptations, and the like; your prayers may obtain God's favor for these men who will not even know till Judgment Day that you have been praying for them. It is a beautiful charity and should not be overlooked.

The Hard-up Rack.

Bills paid yesterday by the Pamphlet Rack amounted to $158.54; outstanding obligations amount to about $90. The only money available for yesterday's bills was the $69.39 of last Sunday's collection, which means a prospective deficit of $178, with only one more Sunday collection to come. This is not an unusual deficit for this time of year, and it may be said for the students of the past that there was always a small balance for the new year when the last whistle blew.-- New offerings for Fr. Rozario's chapel now amount to $42.50.

Prayers.

There will be a Month's Mind Requiem Mass at 6:20 tomorrow morning for Brother Barnabas; Mr. Hoyer requests the Boy Guidance men and K. of C. fellows to be present. Four special intentions.