

Religious Bulletin
October 1, 1929

Get Your Nickel Back.

The rector of Morrissey Hall has turned over to the Prefect of Religion the sum of seventy-five cents, which was entrusted to him by a student who was on the receiving end of the telephone when the operator released the coins that piled up while the phone was out of order. Students who failed to get either their call or their nickel through the Morrissey Hall phone on Sunday may get their hickel back by calling at 141 Sorin. The unclaimed nickels will go to the foreign missions. Two one dollar bills are also awaiting their owners. One of these was found in the book store and the other in the library. The same disposition will be made of them if they are not claimed.

Say The Beads.

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. Pope Leo XIII decreed that during the month the beads must be said in every parish church every day during the month of October, in order to foster devotion to this beautiful and efficacious Catholic practice. We open these devotions solemnly tonight at 7:30; thereafter they are held daily at 5:00 with the exception of Saturdays, when we meet at 12:30, and Sundays, 7:30.

More merit and indulgences can be gained if we join in the public prayers. If you cannot attend these, however, make it a point to say the beads daily during the month, and say them in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, if possible, as there is a plenary indulgence for this, granted recently by Pope Pius XI.

Blessed Rosaries are available at the pamphlet rack. Help yourself. These rosaries are enriched with the four indulgences: Dominican, Bridgetine, Crosier, and Apostolic. And if you don't know how to say the beads, ask some one to show you.

The First Friday Adoration.

Next Friday will give you the first opportunity of the year to experience what the boys experienced who took part in the Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament last May. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from 6:30 a.m. till 7:30 p.m. You may, during those thirteen hours, vest in cassock and surplice and take a place in the sanctuary, to be near our Blessed Lord for as long as you wish. It is a beautiful privilege, and has many graces for you. -- Blank forms for your signatures are posted in the halls, to insure proper distribution of adorers. Sign these to make sure that the Blessed Sacrament is never without adorers.

A Special Intention.

A man who has been very good to you is in grave affliction because of the illness of his wife. He will be deeply grateful for prayers for her recovery. Novenas for this intention will be especially appreciated.

Other Intentions.

Thos. F.J. Carroll, Jr., was called home yesterday by the critical illness of his mother. Leo Longfield, a student last year, lost his father a few days ago. John J. Kelly, of the class of '26, asks prayers for his father who died two weeks ago. Four other special intentions.

Father Albertson's Mass.

Bear in mind that the Mass next Friday morning is for the repose of the soul of Father Albertson.