No Confessions Tonight..

in the hall chapels unless something happens to disturb the announced order of events. If there is night prayer at 7:30 or thereabouts, the confessors will be in their places, as usual; if there is no night prayer, you can't expect busy priests to hang around a chapel all night waiting for a few stragglers.

Confessions At 5:00, 6:15, and 7:30-11:00.

However -- you will have an opportunity for confession this evening, as usual. The difference should be noted.

1. At 5:00, three priests will hear in the church, during the Poor Souls Novena and as long thereafter as there are penitents;
2. At 6:15 confessions will be heard in the basement chapel (until 7:00).
3. From 7:30 on confessions will be heard in the Sorin chapel.

Note also that confessions are heard throughout the morning in the Sorin chapel. You may go to confession this morning and be sure of your chance to receive tomorrow.

Rectors May Make Other Arrangements.

It goes without saying that hall rectors are at liberty to provide confessors for their hall chapels after the bonfire. In case they do this, they will acquaint you with the opportunities thus offered. No arrangements will be made from this office other than those announced above, for the simple reason stated, that it is an imposition on a busy priest to ask him to drop his other work all evening for a task that will take only a few minutes.

It Was 2014 Last Year.

The number of Holy Communions on the morning of the Army Game last year, the highest ever reached at Notre Dame, was 2014. To reach that point tomorrow it will be necessary to hear the confessions of some 500 penitents within the next twenty-four hours. Facilities for that many cannot be provided in the church tomorrow morning. Something towards the desired end can be accomplished if the floor representatives who took up the spiritual bouquet this week will visit the rooms on their respective floor just before five this evening to remind students of the limited opportunities for confessions this evening.

Seven Gone.

We are informed by the Prefect of Discipline that while his office had the unique distinction of no dismissals for the first six weeks of this year, seven students were let go as a direct or indirect result of the Wisconsin trip. Put that in your pipe and smoke it as you ruminates on plans for the next week-end.

A 9:45 Mass Here Sunday.

Your attention is called to an additional Mass provided for your convenience next Sunday -- at 9:45. Only some 40 students attended this Mass after the Wisconsin Game. Pass the word on to those who do not read the Bulletin (for fear their smugness will be disturbed).

Prayers.

Walter Philipp and Thos. Burke ask prayers for their mothers, who are very ill. Five special intentions, two of them very urgent.
