Abie's Irish Team.

Our Perth Amboy correspondent contributes the following from the home-town paper:

"At the beginning of the term, the physical education class of fifth grade boys organized into three teams, not only for the purpose of team games and competition, but to find which group of boys could prove themselves best sports and most trustworthy. A penalty is inflicted each time a boy shows poor sportsmanship in line or in games.

"Notre Dame team, with Abe Diamond as captain, leads the race for this month. The following is a list of boys who by losing no points have proved themselves worthy of the name, 'good sports': Charles Stevenson, Cecil Berman, William Thomas, Bernard Starkman, Edward Garretson, Bernard Belikove, Teddy Simphon, Billy Volk, Jerry Jacobson, Abe Diamond, Elliot Berkowitz, Leroy Levine, Sydney Sewitch, Herbert Valinsky, Howard Weisberg, Philip Gelber, Theodore Metzendorf, George Pfeiff, William Quakenbush, Billy Wilhelm, Lionel Scurman, George Oakes, Harold Frankel."

Puzzle: Find Washington's Birthday.

A graphic representation of Holy Communions for the year is presented at the door of the basement chapel. Since many of you never go there, a crude graph for Lent thus far is herewith offered. Three stars indicate one hundred Holy Communions.

(If you have good eyes you can see that the Novena for a Happy Marriage is just six days old. -- And, speaking of Novenas, the Novena for Luminations will begin Thursday.)

PRAYERS: Dick Cahill's grandfather died last week. Mrs. Coutant, proprietress of the Students' Inn, is ill. Bryan Berman's father is ill. Edw. Cunningham, of Los Angeles, an alumnus, lost his father a few days ago. A relative of Russell Leonard is to undergo an operation. Six special intentions.
