292,000.

That is the number (in thousands only) of Holy Communions received since September, 1930. Almost six weeks remain.

That many cards were filled out for adoration during May, 1929, our first experience with daily adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. This year's cards are now in circulation.

That much money has been deposited locally for Bengal since the collection of ten days ago. The total for the semester is now something more than $500. A kindly letter from Father Delaunay, the vigorous and versatile editor of The Bengalese, magazine of the Bengal Mission, thanks you deeply for your charity, and calls your attention to the need of this magazine for subscriptions. One dollar will bring it to your mother for a year - and for entertainment and edification alone, it is well worth the modest price of subscription.

That is the amount of money a lady states was in her purse when she left it in a taxi a few days ago. The driver states that when she left the taxi he picked up four students and brought them to school, and that they appropriated the contents of the purse. We have only the taxi driver's word for this, but the lady wishes to state that if any student knows more about the matter, she would like to have the information -- and the tax receipts and etcetera that the purse contained. If any student can throw light on the case, he is asked to communicate with the Prefect of Discipline or the Prefect of Religion.

This figure, more or less, represents the attendance expectancy of those in charge of tonight's Monogram Show. The rest of you should go to confession tonight in order to receive Holy Communion Thursday and Friday - Thursday, at the Month's Mind Mass for Knute Rockne, and Friday, for the First Friday and the beginning of the Novena for Mother's Day.

467,997.

You'll have to figure that one out for yourself.

107.

That is the number of Holy Communions promised in the joint Spiritual Bouquet of the Law Club for the repose of the souls of Joe Robinson's father and Norb Chrisman's mother. The other offerings were: Masses heard, 39; Way of the Cross, 1; Visits to the Grotto, 55; Visits to the Blessed Sacrament, 33; Aspirations, 150; Rosaries, 19.

PRAYERS: Saturday's Bulletin was in error in requesting prayers for Wm. and George Driscoll's mother; it is their sister who is ill. Jack Guerin's father is ill. Edw. F. O'Malley, Arnold Seidl, Gilbert Augustine, and Al Hiegel ask prayers for relatives who are very ill. The Sisters of Holy Cross in Salt Lake City ask prayers for a boy, a high school star, who was accidentally killed during Holy Week.
