

-----
The December Adoration.

Your attention has already been directed to the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, which the Bishop has permitted us during this month. It will begin December 9 and close Dec. 17. During these nine days the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for ten hours each day, from 7:30 a.m. till 5:30 p.m. Volunteers will assure a continuous line of adorers.

Off-campus students are asked to volunteer for the half-hour between 12:00 and 12:30. They may sign for any time they please, but that half-hour will have to be taken by students not eating in the dining hall. Cards for the off-campus students will be mailed out; students in the halls will be visited in their rooms by volunteer promoters.

Return your card to the promoter as soon as you have filled it out. The half-hours are designated on the cards sent through the halls; they have only to be signed and addressed. The address, please note, is your own. The card will be mailed back to you to give you notice before your period of adoration. Off-campus students may return their cards either through the mail (in a sealed envelope) or through a box in the Sorin chapel.

It Is A Novena Of Adoration.

Note that the adoration lasts nine days - a Novena. While you are asked to take part in it for only one half-hour, you may, if you choose, make a period of adoration each of the nine days, making this your own private Novena for Christmas. This would be a beautiful preparation for the coming of the great feast of Christ's Nativity.

The Christmas Spiritual Bouquet.

At the pamphlet racks you will find a supply of Christmas Spiritual Bouquet cards. It is suggested that you send these to your parents or to others to whom you feel indebted in one way or another. The offerings to be checked are as follows: Masses heard, Holy Communions, Rosaries, Visits, Aspirations, Mortifications, Novena for Christmas.

The Novena For Purity.

It began yesterday - and there are hundreds of you who seem to feel that you don't need it. Don't kid yourself. Any man who thinks that he can preserve his chastity through life without the strong help of God is a victim of self-delusion. If you do not know the force of temptation now, be warned and fortify yourself with grace for the battle that lies ahead. The world is out to get you - and get you it will if you rely solely on yourself.

Christmas Presents for Missions.

The Christmas stocking begun in September for Fr. Barron, in Korea, has only seventeen dollars in it. That is no support to give a Notre Dame man who has sacrificed his health and offered his life in that hard Mission field. It is only thirteen years since Fr. Barron was a freshman in Badin Hall - now he is slowly gaining back his shattered health and trying hard to save something from ruin into which the depression cast his Mission. -- And from our own New Mexico comes a plea from Fr. Oliver Krseminski, a Franciscan missionary laboring among the Mexicans and Indians. The coal mine which supported the parishioners has been closed down so long that every one is destitute. -- These are two good causes. Can you help them along?

PRAYERS: Winston Disser's father died suddenly yesterday morning at a Communion breakfast. Prof. Riley's mother died recently. Deceased relatives of Wm. George Smith, Ray Bambanek, and another student; two deceased friends of students. Harry Murphy and another student ask prayers for their fathers who are ill; John Cox, for his sister, who has recently undergone an operation. Five special intentions. Mrs. Coutant, proprietress of the Students' Inn, suffered a stroke a few days ago.
