America's "Immaculate Conception"

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe

Mexico celebrates this week the fourth centennial of the miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the picture which appeared on the mantle of the Indian who was sent by Our Lady to tell the Bishop of Mexico to build a church on the site of the present basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The miraculous picture, which is still Mexico's most treasured possession, represents the Blessed Virgin as an Indian girl.

Offer Holy Communion tomorrow in union with Our Lady, the blessed Patroness of the University; with her again, begin your adoration on Wednesday morning. "Mary leads us to Jesus."
