

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
April 25, 1932

---

MOTHER'S DAY NOVENA

The Masses you hear . . . . the Holy Communions you receive . . . . the Litanies and other prayers you recite . . . . the visits you make to the Blessed Sacrament and the Grotto . . . . your mortifications . . . . your aspirations . . . . your rosaries . . . . use them all to tell God and His Blessed Mother how much you love your own mother and what good things you want them to do for her. The Novena for Mother's Day begins tomorrow. Notre Dame offers you nine masses for your mother. What are you adding to this?

---

PRAYERS

Leo Beaulaurier was called home yesterday by the critical condition of his brother. William Hawke lost his mother Thursday. Dick Tobin asks prayers for his deceased aunt and prayers of thanksgiving for the recovery of his mother. Ed Rhatigan's father is ill. A friend of a student is very ill. Three students ask prayers for a deceased friend. Thanksgiving for a conversion (No. 3 of the Church Unity Octave). Four special intentions. (A Novena for conversions will begin next week—the official Novena for Pentecost, celebrated by the whole Church.)