Corpus Christi: Order of the Day.

Thursday is the feast of Corpus Christi, which commemorates most solemnly the institution of the Blessed Sacrament. It is traditionally the day of days at Notre Dame. Father Sorin used to carry the Blessed Sacrament in procession around St. Joseph's Lake in bygone years; more recently the procession has moved about the quadrangle, with Benediction at three stops en route.

Since Sacred Heart Church can no longer accomodate the entire student body, a new arrangement is necessary. The seniors will attend the Mass in the church at 8:00 o'clock, and the underclassmen will attend low Masses in their hall chapels at 8:15, after which they will repair to the church to meet the procession as it enters the quadrangle. The officers of the Senior Class will be the canopy-bearers in the procession, and there will be a senior as marshall in charge of each hall group. The students from the halls will take their places in the procession in the following order: Dillon, Sophomore, Carroll, Brownson, St. Edward's, Lyons, Morrissey, Alumni, Howard, Badin, Walsh, Corby, Sorin.

The rectors will kindly arrange for the 8:15 Masses in the hall chapels; there will also be the usual 6:25 Masses in all the halls, and breakfast will be at 7:00. The Sorin chapel will be attended as usual all morning.

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed throughout the day after the return of the procession to the church; the official adorations begin at 10:00.

Financial Notes.

Bengal profited by the Scholastic's Benefit Show to the extent of $100. Dillon Hall has contributed $11.15, another donor gave $10 recently; other small gifts, including the small change left at the Pamphlet Rack, amounted to $20.30. In addition, we have turned over to Bengal 399 pennies gathered recently in Alumni Hall by juniors who want the Bulletin to buy a new typewriter and give away the old one that says funny things about the juniors. We had to do that because we were afraid that a $3.99 typewriter wouldn't tell the truth about anything, let alone juniors, and also because we wouldn't want anything to happen to the faithful old typewriter that has polished off every known nuisance from the cigar store Indians to the Wisconsin Experimental College.

The large gap in the financial affairs of the Pamphlet Rack is closing rapidly and another Sunday collection should wipe out the deficit. In spite of protests, checks are still coming in from outside readers; with their kind permission we will devote these to the annual donation we hope to make to the Catechists' School, Victory-Noll, at Huntington, Indiana.

The Consecration of the New Altars.

This morning at 7:30, His Excellency Bishop Noll consecrated St. Patrick's altar in Dillon Hall, while six priests delegated by him performed the same ceremony on the other altars in Dillon and Alumni Halls. Three of the consecrators were prelates of the Fort Wayne diocese: Monsignor Delaney, Osadnik, and Kroll; the other three were local priests: the Superior General, Father Donahue, his Assistant, Father Irving, and the Provincial, Father Burns. -- The shrine of St. Olaf, dedicated to the memory of Knute Rockne, will be the first unit of the new chapels to be fitted out completely: a gift of $200 from the local Council of the Knights of Columbus will supply the crucifix and candlesticks for the altar, and a bronze memorial tablet for the shrine. The New Jersey Club has also donated a gift for the shrine - a set of chimes. Many thank PRAYERS: Paul Murphy's mother is very ill. A deceased relative of Bob and Art Violo. Four special intentions.
