

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
April 4, 1934.

-----
Only Blank More Days.

It is not necessary for us to be more specific than that. You have the days all checked and counted and double-checked.

But will they all be blanks?

That's up to you. Every one of those days will be laid to your account for either heaven or hell. You can't escape that. Determine today which you want them to be.

First Friday.

Don't wait until tomorrow night for confession. Set your house in order tonight.

Pray For Howard Waldron.

If you drove home without accident, thank God for it. The roads offered many perils when you left. The three Waldron boys and Ed Sporn were not so lucky. Their car was struck by another at an intersection, and Howard Waldron is still unconscious most of the time. Concussion of the brain, a broken arm, and minor injuries are listed on his chart. The other boys suffered cuts and bruises.

Pray for Howard. He never missed praying and offering Holy Communion for others when there was need for his prayers. Give him a big break now. It's tough on a senior to be thrown for a loss on the ten-yard line.

What Impression Did You Make at Home?

We don't refer to the hit you made with the girls. You knocked them cold - you'll break down and admit it.

How about your father and mother? Were they pleased? Did your high school brother like anything about you but your ties? Did your sister find you less snippy than you were last summer? Did you give your pastor reason to think well of your Notre Dame training? Or were you just another pain-in-the-neck?

If you fell down on the job, go into conference with yourself. Face the facts plainly. Classify yourself honestly. Soliloquize as follows:

"You good-for-nothing chump. You had a chance to rate; you threw it away. You're just a rat. You monopolized the car, you squandered your father's hard-earned money on pigs, you gave to a brainless gang the time that belong to God. There was no peace at home until you started back to school. You rat."

If, on the other hand, your Easter vacation was what it should be, if you fulfilled your duties to God and your family, if you comported yourself as a Catholic gentleman, take no credit for it yourself. Say what our Lord commanded us to say: "We are unprofitable servants; we have done that which we ought to do." (Luke, 17:10.)

Questionnaires Needed.

Only 682 were returned before Easter. 70 more are needed.

PRAYERS: Deceased - Albert King, '14, of Chicago; Sister Carmelita, a sister of Brother Irenaeus, C.S.C.; a brother of Father Hebert, C.S.C.; the father of Ed, '11, and George Delana, '14; the mother of Jos. Buchanan, ex-'32; the grandmother of Bill and Frank Doyle; uncles of John J. Collins, '33, and Clark Benkendorf, '31; a friend of Harry Baldwin. Ill - the mother of George Bolger, '33; a friend of Mrs. Rockne. 3 sp. ints.