-----
Out of the Depths.

O listen, and hear them appealing--
The voice of the spirits in pain:
In the chill that comes over us stealing
With the sob of the pitiful rain;
The sobbing, cold rain of November,
Like the voice of one crying: "Remember,
Remember the souls of the dead!"

In the midnight, when others are sleeping,
And the moonlight streams down through the dark,
And a restlessness over us creeping
Makes us wakeful and watchful; then, hark,
In the lonely, cold nights of November,
How they seem to beseech us: "Remember,
Remember the souls of the dead!"

In the rustle of leaves that are falling
With a whispering sigh at our feet,
There's a voice from the past, softly calling,
Fournfully pleading, sweet:
"O friends, in the month of November,
You, at least, who once loved us, remember,
Remember the souls of the dead!"

'Tis the burden of ocean's sad dirges,
A voice that incessantly saith:
"We loved you while living; it urges:
"O do not forget us in death!
Not alone through the month of November,
But till you too need mercy, remember,
Remember the souls of the dead!"

Do for the Poor Souls during November (the month dedicated to them by the Church) what some day, please God, you will wish future generations here to do for you. The Poor Souls cannot help themselves, but they can help you plenty.

From noon tomorrow, Feast of All Saints, until the evening of Friday, All Souls' Day, you can gain a plenary indulgence for each visit that you make to the church or to your hall chapel. Each of these indulgences is applicable to the Souls in Purgatory.

Here are the conditions that you must fulfill: be in the state of grace; receive Holy Communion Thursday or Friday; say, each visit, 6 Our Fathers, 6 Hail Marys, and 6 Glory be to the Fathers for the intention of the Pope. Each priest says three masses on All Souls Day. Try to hear three.

Saturday the Poor Souls' Novena begins. Go to Mass and Holy Communion every morning. Every evening during the Novena at 5:00 (Saturdays at 12:30; Sundays at 7:00 and 7:30) special prayers for the Poor Souls are publicly recited in the Main Church.

PRAYERS: Deceased, father of Brother Dennis; father of a student; father of Samuel G. Hyde '33; grandmother of Dick Sullivan, Ill., Father Koetter; brother and uncle of Harry Leakley; mother of Earl Aberle (Alumni), about to undergo an operation. Five special intentions.
