Tonight and Tomorrow Night.

Due to the basketball game, there will be Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament accompanied by a sermon by Father Carey, only at 7:00 tonight. All halls are to attend at 7:00 tonight.

Tomorrow night, Benediction at 7:00 and 7:30; sermons by Father Collentine. Upper-classmen are to come to the 7:00 service tomorrow night; Freshmen are to attend at 7:30.

Tonight or tomorrow night, at Benediction, is your best opportunity to go to confession in preparation for Lent. Confessions are heard during the sermon. Don't wait until Ash Wednesday morning. It is physically impossible to take care of everyone then.

And Listen.....

The crowd will be large Ash Wednesday morning. There is no opportunity then to tell you, so get this straight tonight:

The imposition of ashes takes place before Mass. Several priests will distribute the ashes at the Communion rail. During and after Mass Holy Communion is distributed.

Don't come to the altar rail while the priest is distributing Holy Communion and ask for ashes.

Blessing of ashes takes place Ash Wednesday morning at 7:00, followed immediately by Mass. Be in the church at 7:00. Breakfast at 8:00.

Volunteers!

A box with blank cards and a schedule of vacant periods is provided at the Pamphlet Rack in Dillon Hall.

The Adoration.

1. Exposition takes place in Sacred Heart Church, usually on the Bernini altar in the apse, but during Forty Hours and on Wednesdays and the First Friday, on the main altar.
2. Official adorers (those who sign cards) vest in cassock and surplice and spend their period in the sanctuary.
3. The Blessed Sacrament must never be left alone! Volunteers should take care of gaps in the adoration. These gaps will be published from time to time in the Bulletin.
