Two Bits for Bengal.

Thanks to the editor of the Scholastic and his staff, and to a generous group of campus boxers and wrestlers, you can do some real Lenten charity next Friday night in the gym and find a lot of fun in doing it.

Two bits is all that you'll be taxed; and from what they say about the Sorin-Walsh bout that alone will be worth double the price of admission.

This Bengal boxing show has come to be an annual feature here at Notre Dame. It represents the student body's own tribute to the Notre Dame graduates laboring in the hot, fever-stricken, dangerous mission fields of India.

Stay on the campus next Friday night and have 25¢ ready for the Boxing Show!

The Royal Road of the Holy Cross.

To many' this seemeth a hard saying: "Deny thyself, take up thy cross, and follow Jesus."

But it will be much harder to hear that last word: "Depart from Me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire."

For they who now love to hear and follow the word of the Cross shall not then fear the sentence of eternal condemnation.

This sign of the Cross shall be in heaven when the Lord shall come to judge.

Then all the servants of the Cross, who in their lifetime have conformed themselves to Him that was crucified, shall come to Christ their Judge with great confidence.

Why, then, art thou afraid to take up thy cross, which leadeth to the kingdom?

In the Cross is salvation; in the Cross is life; in the Cross is protection from enemies.

In the Cross is infusion of heavenly sweetness; in the Cross is strength of mind; in the Cross is joy of spirit.

In the Cross is height of virtue; in the Cross is perfection of sanctity.

There is no health of soul, nor hope of eternal life, but in the Cross.

Take up, therefore, thy cross, and follow Jesus, and thou shalt go into life everlasting.

He is gone before thee, carrying His cross, and He died for thee upon the cross, that thou mayest also bear thy cross, and love to die on the cross.

Because if thou die with Him, thou shalt also live with Him; and if thou art His companion in suffering, thou shalt also be His companion in glory.

(--from the Imitation of Christ by Thomas a Kempis.)
