EASTER DUTY
in your own hall chapel

Easter Duty is made in common at Notre Dame to help the phlegmatic and careless discharge this very serious obligation before they leave for the holidays.

Be sure to go Tuesday morning even if already you have received many times during Lent. The fellow who finds it hard to go to the Sacraments feels easier about it if he has strong support.

And be sure to receive in your own hall chapel. (Your rector and prefect will be pleased to check your name off their list.)

Confessions tonight: Basement and Dillon Chapels, 6:15-7. All hall chapels at night prayer. Dillon Hall chapel, again, 8 to 10—when- ever you push the buzzer.

Go to Confession tonight!

PRAYERS: Deceased, Rev. Wm. Doran, D.D.; granduncle of student; Roy Cronin, friend of Carl J. Senger (Carroll). Ill, father of Dan Gibbs (Freshman); friend of Joseph Corcoran (Dillon); cousin of Albert J. Schwartz (Lyons); Charley Hodierna (Dillon). Five special intentions.
