Peace....Refreshment

During one of the two coming weeks you will make a mission--a good one let's hope. You will get all straightened out with God, if you are at all sane, and you will go daily to Mass and Holy Communion.

You don't want the mission to be a mere passing "revival". You want its graces to last throughout your life.

Then by thought and reflection, make the instructions and sermons your own. Which points apply particularly in your life? What are the preacher's special recommendations to you? How can you put his suggestions most effectively to work? What will protect you against backsliding?

Interviews with God

All during October, month of the Holy Rosary, there will be adoration. Those 31 days the Blessed Sacrament is exposed from 7:30 until 5:30 in the Bernini Chapel to the rear of the main altar.

You will find the place pleasant. Flowers decorate the altar. Prayers and stimulating prayer books are there. Cassock and surplice are provided for you. You will find rest for your soul, an ideal place to think, to reflect, to pray, away from the hustling, superficial world. You will find, above all, God Himself, making you realize anew His invitation and His promise:

"Come to Me all ye that labor and are heavily burdened and I will refresh you."

Students' Own Testimonials.

There are beauty, peace, refreshment, strength in adoration. Here are the testimonials of the students themselves in years gone by:

"Adoration is one of the most beautiful ways of getting in touch with God."...."It is the perfect way to pray heart-to-heart with God."...."It is a means to new strength." ..."There's nothing so soothing as a half-hour with our King."

Why not plan to bring your worries and troubles, under Our Lady's patronage, to the Feet of the Eucharistic King? Tomorrow or the next day one of your fellow students will visit your room and ask you to sign up. That student is showing you great courtesy. He is trying to make a valuable opportunity convenient as possible for you. Show appreciation for this courtesy.

For Sissies?

Do sissies go in for adoration? Don't connect up the words "sissy" and "adoration" in the hearing of the football squad. And don't put the question that way to the leaders on the campus. Many of them "go in" for adoration.

Sign up. Adoration will help make the fruits of the mission living, lasting realities in your life.
