Easter Duty For Everyone.

Certain Catholic students at Notre Dame have not been to the Sacraments since the beginning of Lent. If one of your friends happens to be among that number, remind him that EVERY CATHOLIC STUDENT AT NOTRE DAME IS EXPECTED TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION NEXT TUESDAY MORNING IN HIS OWN HALL CHAPEL. Off-campus students are asked to sign up in Dillon Hall Chapel.

Easter Communion Day in common is carried out every year at Notre Dame to make sure that NO Notre Dame man misses his Easter Duty. Experience shows that the holder-outers go more easily when everybody goes.

Your cooperation is asked. Even if you have been to the Sacraments frequently, go to Communion in your own hall next Tuesday morning. Your hall rector and prefects will be watching for an hundred-per cent representation at the Communion rail next Tuesday morning.

Tomorrow--Two Anniversaries.

Nine years ago tomorrow Bill Mitchell died after an auto accident. Here is an excerpt from a recent letter written to Father O'Hara, President of the University, by Bill's parents:

"It will be of interest to the Alumni and possibly to the students today to learn that an altar dedicated to the Sacred Heart and erected in memory of our son, William T. Mitchell, Class of 1928, will be consecrated by the celebration of Holy Mass in St. Agnes' Church at Rockville Centre, Long Island, at 8 o'clock Easter Standard Time, March 21st, which will be the ninth anniversary of his death at Notre Dame. Your prayers and those of the Faculty, as well as of the Alumni and students, are earnestly requested, especially those of the Playwriting Class which was endowed in my boy's memory when, as you know, Professor Charles Phillips was the head thereof."

Eight years ago tomorrow, another student, Charles Casey, died after an auto accident. Remember him, and Bill Mitchell, in your Mass and Holy Communion tomorrow morning. A special Mass will be offered at 7:20 in Dillon Hall tomorrow for Bill and Charlie. Come, especially if you don't get to Mass before breakfast!

At The Half.

Lent is just about half over. Take inventory today. Renew your resolutions. God expects you to do penance, not as a feeble child, but as a MAN.

The warning--"Unless you do penance you shall all likewise perish"--applies to you today just as it did Ash Wednesday morning.

If you have wretched on some of your resolutions, take them up again with more earnestness, and push on to Easter. Failure doesn't excuse from effort; it only makes the need of effort all the more urgent.

Sunday--Two Anniversaries.

Rev. John Cavanaugh, C.S.C., brilliant President of Notre Dame from 1905-1919, died a year ago. The 9-o'clock Mass next Sunday will be offered for him. The 8-o'clock Mass Monday will be for Rev. Dominic O'Malley, C.S.C., former Rector of Corby Hall; it is Father O'Malley's third anniversary. Join in remembering these two priests in your Mass and Holy Communion Sunday morning.
