General Communion For Cardinal Pacelli.

As Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Pacelli, next to the Holy Father himself, carries the largest and most important responsibilities in the temporal administration of the Church. Laborious and exacting indeed is his Christlike life.

You saw him last Sunday here on the campus when he honored the University with his presence and his benediction. You were highly pleased, as thousands who know him better have been, at his humility and genuine kindness.

Tomorrow there will be a General Communion of the student body for Cardinal Pacelli. Make it as earnest as your gratitude, as general as your admiration, for this busy Prince who at extreme personal cost and inconvenience visited you, and who in all truth carries daily a heavy cross in your behalf.

Go to confession, if necessary, tonight. There will be a special Mass offered by Father O'Hara for Cardinal Pacelli in the main church at 6:25 tomorrow morning. Everyone turn out for this Mass, and receive Holy Communion in a body for the great and lovable Cardinal!

Birth Control.

The Chesterton Society will meet with Mr. Lunn Thursday night at 8 in the smoker of the Law Building. Subject for discussion: "Catholic Attitude Toward Birth Control." Under Mr. Lunn, you have the opportunity of a lifetime to learn the most effective arguments for and against birth control. Don't miss this meeting. Everyone invited!

Lots To Be Said For Murder!
By Arnold Lunn.

Did you see that story about the old lady who was brutally attacked by her chauffeur? He threw vitrol in her face and then was on the point of finishing her off when her son rushed in. The chauffeur caught him one with a poker and nearly laid him out, but after a tough fight the chauffeur was knocked out and the old lady saved. Well, she had another son living in a nieghboring state, and when he heard the news he said, "Of course Mother rather underpaid the chauffeur and I think my brother needn't have hit him quite so hard. I don't approve of violence and it seems that there were plenty of atrocities on both sides when my brother and that chauffeur were scrapping."

Did you see that story? No you didn't, but you've heard something pretty much like it. Our Mother the Church in Spain has been the object of a murderous assault, and our brothers in Spain have died by the thousand to rescue their Mother--and ours.

But, unfortunately, many Catholics have been infected by the clever, insidious, left-wing propaganda and are only too ready to agree that their Mother was partly to blame for her troubles in Spain and that their brothers have been a little rough in dealing with people whose idea of a pleasant party is described by Raymond Jaccote in a recent article in The Tablet:

"At Baena seventy young ladies of aristocratic or patriotic families were obliged to serve, naked, at a big banquet in Santa Maria Church after which they were raped on the altars and killed save only with dynamite cartridges."

But of course our brothers ought not to have been so rough with the chauffeur!
In subsequent issues of the Bulletin, Mr. Lunn will discuss CURRENT CASE ABOUT CH'IN.
Watch for these issues!
