Current Cant About Spain.
By Arnold Lunn.

I. That the Insurgents (hereinafter described as the Rights in contrast to the Reds --and Wrongs--) represent Fascism against Democracy.

The election for the so-called Democratic Government was held in a state of terror. Communists paraded Granada in armored cars. Right wing candidates were, in many places, forbidden to address their constituents. The results of the election were nullified in many centers where they were favorable to the Rights.

The popular front secured a majority of seats by these methods, but in spite of terrorism were not supported by a majority of votes. A majority in Spain voted AGAINST the popular front.

From the first, this pink Government was nothing more than a mask behind which the Reds prepared by terrorism for the sovietizing of Spain. The following list was presented to the Cortez in June, four months after the election: the "Democratic" Government had taken no steps to prevent the total destruction of 160 churches, 10 newspaper offices, and 63 Catholic centers; 1556 persons were killed and wounded during the rule of Spanish "democracy."

Under the leadership of Franco are fighting all those who love Spain, Monarchists and Republicans, Carlists, Socialists and Liberals, Catholics and Agnostics--all true Spaniards who wish Spain to remain Spain and not to become a province of Asiatic and Atheistic Russia.

II. That the Rights should not have used Moors against the Reds.

Spanish Catholicism and Moorish Mohammedism have both enriched Spain with great cultures. Spanish Communism has contributed nothing but the bestial destruction of the glories of the past.

There is much in common between a chivalrous Spaniard and a chivalrous Moor. There is nothing in common between men of chivalry and the scum that have crucified priests and tortured defenseless nuns.

The Spaniard and the Moor believe in God. And between those who believe in God there is a natural alliance against the degenerate atheists of Moscow and Madrid.

The very people who are the first to protest against the alliance of Spaniards and Moors are the first to disclaim racial prejudice. Very few English or American Liberals protested against the use of African and Asiatic troops in the family quarrel of Europe.

For The Washington Statue.

Sorin boosted its total to $30 and thereby leads all other halls in contributions. Lyons and Old Infirmary are still unreported. --Among off-campus donations is one for $25 from Eddie Dunigan, a long-time friend of the University; another, for $7.50 is from the ten- and twelve-year-old pupils of the Hall of the Divine Child, Monroe, Michigan; a third donation, this one for $5, is from Mrs. Henry Behrens, mother of Gilbert, the freshman who died in October, 1934.

FATHER SIMA'S CAUSE has already benefitted by donations of $5, $3, $2, and $1.

Note On Birth Control. The Chesterton Society, under Mr. Lunn, will continue the discussion of Birth Control next Monday at 8. So that everyone may be accommodated, the meeting Monday will be held in the auditorium of the Engineering Building.

PRAYERS: (Ill,) mother of William C. Potter, trustee of the University. 3 sp. ints.
