

KEEP HOLY WEEK HOLY

©J.F.L., S.A.G., 1935

Above all, don't by sin join the mob that put Christ to death. Keep away from worldly pleasures and attend services in church, following them in English with your Missal. These most sacred days of Lent are for prayer and penance.

HOLY THURSDAY. "And taking bread, He gave thanks, and brake, and gave to them, saying: This is My body which is given for you: do this for a commemoration of Me. In like manner the chalice also, after He had supped, saying: This is the chalice, the New Testament in My blood, which shall be shed for you."

Nearly three hundred thousand times Holy Communion has been distributed on the campus already this year. More than eleven thousand Masses have been offered up here. On Holy Thursday, feast of the institution of the Holy Eucharist, let us thank God. Let us ask His forgiveness for ingratitude and coldness. Let us promise not to forego or abuse these opportunities.

GOOD FRIDAY. "And the sun was darkened and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. And Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said: Father into Thy hands I commend My spirit. And saying this He gave up the ghost."

The redemption of man had been accomplished. The Mass and the Sacraments had found their source of power. All of the mercies of the confessional come from Calvary. Need you be reminded that Good Friday is sacred and that on Good Friday you owe God special thanks?

Anniversary Mass for Rockne

March 31 is the 6th anniversary of the tragic death of Knute Rockne. Requiem High Mass, at the request of the Gogebic Range Notre Dame Club, on the morning of the anniversary at the Rockne Shrine, Dillon Hall. Because many of you will not be back on the campus on March 31, the students' memorial Mass will be on April 1. You now have advance information. Be here to attend this Mass on April 1st.
