Tonight! Collection For Spain's Children.

Can it be said that Communists are more zealous than Catholics? The Young Communist League of America generously supports the hundreds of American Communists fighting with the Lincoln-Washington Battalion of the Spanish Red Army.

Carl Ross, secretary of this League, recently received a letter of thanks from his co-patriots in Red Spain.

"We wish to express our thanks once again to all of our friends in America and let you know that your selection of gifts was particularly well received. It contained many items that are seldom seen here in the Young Communist League of Spain." (From letter quoted in official Communist newspaper.)

The Young Communist League also supports a radical organization which assists Americans fighting with the Spanish Red Army. "To date the 'Friends' have raised more than $100,000 in cash, and have sent tons of food, clothing and other supplies to Leftist Spain."

Across the Atlantic

war challenges a Catholic country that helped to Christianize your country.

"As Americans we owe you (Spanish Bishops) a debt of gratitude. In our Far-South, Southwest, and West there still is told the story of the heroic Spanish priests and friars who did a work which is part of our national glory." (From the Letter of the Bishops of the United States to the Spanish Hierarchy.)

This ugly struggle has stifled the life of Spain. Innocent sufferers, helpless to provide for themselves, need food, clothing and medicine. The America Spanish Relief Fund will assist the needy children in all Spain. "Do good to those who hate you, and pray for them that persecute you."

better Catholic? By intelligently reading Catholic publications. The Catholic Digest made its first public appearance in November, 1936.

Since that time it has had a bitter struggle for existence. Unlike other periodicals it lacks the backbone of highly touted advertising. On the newsstand it is a non-paying proposition. Hence, to keep its head above water, it must rely on individual subscriptions.

A student, who is working his way through school, will receive the concession on this magazine. Subscription--$2.50 per year. If that price is too steep, buy a single copy and read it. You'll find it very much worth your while--very much are the words!

Dr. Carrel Plunges Home.

In "Man The Unknown" Dr. Alex Carrel has this to say about what many call "petty" discipline.

"Rougher conditions of existence and more responsibility would restore man's moral energy and audacity. More virile habits should be substituted for the uniformity and softness of life in schools. The adaptation of the individual to discipline determines definite changes in the nervous system, the endocrine glands, and the mind. The organism thus acquires a better integration, greater vigor, and more ability to overcome the difficulties of existence....Two essential conditions for the progress of the individual are relative isolation and discipline."

St. Agnes' Prayer For Purity.

"Let my body perish rather than my soul sin. Let me keep my thoughts pure and my love holy, so that both in body and soul I may remain like my Beautiful Model, always wonderful."

The Pledge.

"He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life: and I will raise him up in the last day." (John VI, 55) relative of John Curry (Cav). Ill, father of Gene Dolan (Walsh); father of A.J. Rizzi (How); friend of Ed Pick. Five spec. ints.
