When You Miss ONE Holy Communion.

It is well for you, just back from vacation, to consider what you lose every morning that you pass up Holy Communion:

1. You miss a personal visit with Jesus, author of all spiritual energy and of all holiness;
2. You lose a special increase of sanctifying grace, which makes your soul more pleasing to God;
3. You lose a quota of sacramental grace, which entitles you to special help in times of temptation and in the discharge of your daily duties;
4. You lose a precious opportunity of having all your venial sins wiped away;
5. You miss the special preserving influence which each Holy Communion confers against the fires of passion;
6. You miss the opportunity of having remitted a part, or all, of the temporal punishment due to your sins;
7. You lose the spiritual joy, the sweetness, and particular comfort that come from a fervent Holy Communion;
8. You lose part of the glory that your body might enjoy at its resurrection on the Last Day;
9. You lose the greater degree of glory you would possess in Heaven for all eternity;
10. You may lose:
 - a. complete victory over some fault or passion;
 - b. some particular grace long prayed for;
 - c. the conversion or salvation of some soul;
 - d. deliverance of a relative or friend from Purgatory;
 - e. many graces for others, both the living and the dead.

Will a few extra minutes of sleep repay you for all these losses?

Don't you want to make that Novena for Dad? Where there's a will, there's a way.

"God Give You Sense."

The last thing you want to think about on this earth is the state of your soul--and it seems to be the last thing you want to think about after vacation.

Confessions are now heard after supper not only in Dillon and Basement Chapels but in Howard and Cavanaugh Chapels also.

PRAYERS: (deceased) Patrick Behan, friend of Bill Daly (Cavanaugh); Mrs. Jachim, friend of Chet Kwiecien (Cavanaugh); William Spencer. Ill, mother of Harry Gottron (Cavanaugh). Four special intentions.
