

Mission Mass tomorrow-- for next one of us
to die.

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
September 27, 1938

Deceased: mother of Ed
McDermott (St.Eds.) and
Rev. P.J.Crawley '93.

Just Around The Corner.

Out of Kansas this weekend the Jayhawks burst north, bent on avenging defeat. A few prayers never hurt.

But football or no, October first is always a big day at Notre Dame, for it opens the Month of the Rosary and the privilege of Adoration is renewed. Every day in October the Blessed Sacrament is exposed and enthroned on the famous Bernini Altar in Sacred Heart Church. That is the Lady Chapel.

How fitting to link the names of Jesus and Mary. They lived together in Bethlehem and Nazareth. We should venerate them together here. Notre Dame's proudest title is "City of the Blessed Sacrament."

Choose good companions this fall. In October your best friends must be Christ and His Blessed Mother. If you grow dizzy from the whizzing and whirring merry-go-round of too much pleasure and too little thought, you will want to pray, as other generations of Notre Dame students have, in the peace and quiet of Adoration. Perhaps you have things to talk over: temptation, vocation, the girl friend, your studies perhaps.

Welcome the volunteer canvasser as he knocks at your door, signing up periods. Be prompt and courteous. If you can take one of the "tougher spots" your sacrifice will fit in with the spirit of living for Others. At nightprayer rectors in Freshmen halls will explain Adoration a little more fully.

Exposition lasts weekdays, Monday through Friday 7:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., closing with beads and Benediction. Ordinarily on Saturdays it closes at 11:30 A.M. but in case of home football games, Benediction is given an hour earlier.

Others.

"Lord, help me to live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray
My prayer shall be for Others.

"Help me in all the work I do
To be ever sincere and true
And know that all I do for You
Must needs be done for Others.

"Let self be crucified and slain
And buried deep; and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again
Unless to live for Others.

"And when my work on earth is done
And my new work in Heaven's begun
May I forget the crown I've won
While thinking still of Others.

"Others, Lord, yes Others
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for Others
That I may live for Thee."

PRAYERS: (deceased) cousin of Frank Donlon (Sorin); Mr. Foley; aunt of John Kerrigan (Brownson). Ill, (seriously) father of John Fiedeman (Bro.); uncle of Dan Curley (Al.); brother of Juan E. Cintron (Carroll); Sr. M. Calista C.S.C.. Four special intentions.