Everybody Up And At 'Em.

Nobody that watched that Kansas-Texas score last week expects a push-over win tomorrow. So every loyal Notre Dame rooter is going to dive out of his bed onto the cold, hardwood floor at the first nerve-wracking, peace-splitting ring of the bell tomorrow and offer up the inconvenience for the team. Three thousand pains from getting up promptly is a sizeable sacrifice in any league and it may be enough to avoid any serious injury during the game.

Catholic students will want to assist at the whole Mass and receive Holy Communion. That includes the players themselves-- to a man.

The objections about prayer and football have been answered a thousand times. Where in the Bible or anywhere else does the Lord exclude from the things to be asked for hope of victory, escape from physical hurts, grit to play the game clean?

Up and at 'em. Watch out you Jayhawkers. Three thousand man-power's pretty strong.

Christ In The Monstrance.

Tomorrow right after breakfast Exposition begins. Due to the shortened classes and early dinner, everyone be on his toes. If you owe the Lord a half-hour's Adoration, don't skip it. To cover this first, exceptional day volunteers will be gratefully welcomed.

As in other years, Father Hooyboer has generously offered to lead the rosary and to give Benediction. These will start promptly tomorrow at 10:30. But don't forget dinner. On account of the game, it's served tomorrow an hour earlier. 11:00 o'clock tea.

And, by the bye, if you haven't a pair of beads, pick one up at the racks in Dillon, Howard or Cavanaugh. If the racks are exhausted when you arrive, ask one of the Prefects of Religion nearby.

The Youthful Sick.

Since school has opened, the Bulletin has recalled the illness at home of Bob Cullen and Mike Shannon, both of St. Ed's last year. Jack Coughlin of Minoc, North Dakota, also one of Father Gorman's children last year, is unwell, and Ken Duffy, late of Morrissey Hall is reported sick. Ken lives in Detroit. At Healthwin, just north of the campus lies Robert B. Lee, villager registered last year in law.

Give them all a break in your prayers, your visits to the Grotto, your trips to the Adoration Chapel this month. If you know them well, why not drop a line? You would like it yourself, no?

First To Third.

Catholic men of the first order belong to the Third Order: Columbus, Galvani, Danto, our present Fepe, and lots of others.

What is the Third Order of St. Francis? It's a real religious order for you Catholics in the world who want to bet .400 (or more) in the game of life. It has a simple rule, many privileges. And those who are members will tell you it is one of the biggest things in their life.

First meeting of the Notre Dame Tertiaries, next Tuesday, Dillon Chapel. Exact time to be announced later.

PRAYERS: (deceased) father of Geo.Gist (St.Eds.). Ill, friend of Ed Dougherty (Dil.)
