

-----
McGUTZKY NOT GUILTY.

No, this hasn't got a thing to do with McGutzky. Whatever faults "Brick" has, at least he's honest.

Here you see "Pete" Snoopa. Every year at this time he pulls a string of mean tricks on the fellows who are getting checks to go home on. Already money's been reported missing from two halls.

So, the Bulletin just takes time out for a minute to warn you. Lock up your cash; don't leave gifts around in an unlocked room; keep your tickets in your wallet. When you're making Adoration pray for "Pete" Snoopa's arrest. He's not worth a hoot.

If you, or any of the other men catch him at work, don't hesitate about cracking his punk skull on the forming crust of the lake.

To "Pete" personally: Get away from here quickly. Nobody likes you.

P.S. It's not stealing if anyone wants to part voluntarily with a mite for the Poor. The Bulletin's Poor Fund is down to $86.68 which will be distributed among the needy in and around Notre Dame. Your mite can be slipped under the door of 107 Cavanaugh, 106 Howard or 117 Dillon. You save when you give to "Others."
