

PRAYERS: (deceased)
grandmother of a friend of Bernard Nowicki(Off-

University of Notre Dame
Religious Bulletin
January 14, 1939

Campus). Ill, grandmother of Tom Wall (Corby).

-----
Novena For Studies Starts Monday.

Everyone get set. The 2925 Catholics among you should prepare for the coming exams, asking the help of the Holy Ghost and Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom. As there will be crowds ducking in and out of the confessionals at Mass and Benediction tomorrow, why not take care of that detail tonight? After supper straight through till ten confessions will be heard: in Howard and Dillon, 6:30-8:15; in Cavanaugh, 8:15-10:00.

Saturday Is Mary's Day.

That is why the Ave Maria is always dated the last day of the week. In its seventy-fifth year the Ave keeps young with the times. The last two weeks it has been sporting a new jacket. Pick out this week's number in the "Caf" and acquaint yourselves with things current and Catholic. To supplement and balance your "secular" reading from the daily press get the Catholic view. Doesn't the "Front" propaganda regarding the Spanish embargo show you the danger of a biased press?

Leading article in the Ave this week is "Mexican Catholic Action Reveals Its Problems. On the modern temper there is a full-length essay called "Jam Sessions." But most down your alley you'll find the famed Notes and Remarks. Here are summarized samples:

DEMONSTRATION OF FREE SPEECH.....The face of a New York radio station turns red. Father Coughlin can't speak, Browder can.
THE FORTY-TWO PERCENT.....Another slant on the Gallup Poll. If the picture were turned around-- civil war here-- what would American Catholics think if their Spanish co-religionists didn't care a rap?
RUSSIA'S FAILURE.....The Godless Movement has another think coming. Sack the church, slash the priest. The people still pray. Faith as it was in the catacombs.
A NOTEWORTHY EDITORIAL.....Rare thing nowadays to see religious convictions championed on a metropolitan daily's page. One orchid to the Boston Traveler.

Yessir, lads, give the Ave your "imprimatur." Even though it is not part of the University, it goes out from the post-office here. What is more, it offers by its wholesome proximity to be your cultured companion when you feel like slumping down in the easy chair and reading a bit. It will help you to think. (Note-- Also going out of this post-office-- tonight-- is a bill to the Ave Maria for space. The editor may, should he choose, lop off a substantial sum from the Bulletin's printing bill at the Ave Maria Press. Repercussions awaited).

C.S.M.C. Boys, Get Busy.

Still waiting to see those boxes you were going to put in the halls to receive those tons of stamps for the missions which the fellows have piled on their desks and stuffed in their drawers. Washington Bureau of the Bengalese can't be let down. Thanks.

Franciscans!

There will be a meeting of the Tertiaries of St. Francis, Monday evening at 7:45 in Dillon Chapel. In addition to induction and profession of members there will be a conference by Fr. John J. Cavanaugh C.S.C. on "The Christian Way of Life." Non-members are invited.

PRAYERS: (deceased) Miss Genevieve Howard, daughter of late Judge Timothy Howard; friend of Ed Hogan (Car.); Martin Mahan (Scranton, Pa.); Sara Purtell; grandfather of Bob Appleton (Zahm); mother of Fr. James Fogarty, C.S.C. (Dillon). Ill, Joyce Kennet, friend of Jim Moylan (Lyons); father of Joe Gerwe (Dil.). Six special intentions.